2008 Clark County Junior Fair General Rules and Regulations

Note: Changes to the Jr. Fair Book will be posted to the Clark County Fair website at <http://www.clarkcountyfair.org>

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Enrollment: Junior Fair exhibitors must be currently enrolled and meet all enrollment requirements for Clark County 4-H, FFA, Scouts, Farm Bureau Youth & other participating youth organizations.
2. Age: All 4-H Junior Fair exhibitors must be 8 years old & in 3rd grade &/or no older than 18 years of age as of January 1st of the current year. Exceptions: Cloverbuds participating in non-competitive events where the exhibitor must be 5 years of age & in Kindergarten through 2nd grade. Other youth organizations have their ages outlined under the departments.
3. Entry Deadlines: Each youth organization participating in the Junior Fair has their own entry deadlines and requirements based on their organizations enrollment. Junior Fair participants exhibiting as 4-H members must be enrolled in a 4-H Club by April 1st of the current year to be eligible to show, exhibit, sell or receive any Junior Fair awards including premiums. See FFA, Girl Scouts, and other youth program departments for entry deadlines.
4. Dual Membership: Jr. Fair exhibitors that are members of more than one youth organization participating in Jr. Fair (example – 4-H and FFA) may not exhibit in the same project in both organizations. For example: You may take a market hog project in 4-H and a market steer project in FFA, but you may not take market hogs in both 4-H and FFA this includes scrambles.
5. Exhibition of Projects: All projects must be exhibited, shown and sold by the exhibitor. In situations where an exhibitor has more than one animal in the same class, another Clark County Junior Fair exhibitor may show one of the animals for him/her. If an exhibitor can't be present for illness or injury, the Jr. Fair Committee chairperson or representative from the Jr. Fair Office will decide who will show or sell the project. Exhibitors with special circumstances must present in writing or person their situation before the Species Committee and/or Senior Fair Board for decision and action.
6. 4-H Project Judging Days and/or Skillathon: Any Clark County 4-H member that wishes to participate with their project(s) in the Junior Fair must participate in the Clark County 4-H Project Judging Days and/or Skillathon with their project(s). FFA members that want to be eligible for Premier Exhibitor awards must also participate in the related Project Judging/Skillathon event.

2008 Junior Fair Grooming Rules

Alpacas/Llamas:

- A. The only grooming material permitted is water, shampoo and conditioner.
- B. All animals must be shorn for the health of the animal.
- C. Prior to the show, exhibitors are not permitted to use any artificial coloring (such as shoe polish or paint) or any appearance modifications (such as, but not limited to placement of ice, ice water rags on animals or any similar type of practices).

Beef:

- A. Use of any substance to enhance or change the color of the livestock, including the livestock's hide or hooves; adding any substance externally to build up, change or alter the shape or conformation of the livestock, including by way of example but not limited to rope, false hair, graphite, hemp and powders; and/or pigmented grooming aides or materials. Each steer and market heifer will be checked for paint and pigmented materials before entering the show arena. Steers or market heifers giving evidence of such treatment will be barred from competition at the Clark County Fair.
- B. All animals must be halter broken and easily handled in order to show and sell. The Junior Fair Beef Committee reserves the right to disqualify any steer at the Clark County Fair that is seen as uncontrollable and unsafe to the public.
- C. Steers and market heifers must be led to the scales, shown and sold by the member alone, unless arrangements are made through the Committee Chairman, FFA Advisor or 4-H Extension Educator prior to the event.
- D. Exhibitors with special conditions, need or circumstances need to notify the Beef Committee 30 days prior to the first day of the county fair.

Dairy:

- A. All dairy shows are held under the Purebred Dairy Cattle Association Show Ring Code of Ethics. Violations of the Show Ring Code of Ethics will result in exhibitor disqualification for one (1) year from the Clark County Fair.
- B. Treating the animal, internally or externally, with an irritant or counter-irritant, or other substance to artificially improve the conformation is not permitted.
- C. Surgery or insertion of foreign matter under the skin or into body cavities, performed to change the natural contour or appearance of the animal's body, though not to preclude practices required or involved in normal management is not permitted.
- D. Criticizing or interfering with the judge, show management or other exhibitors while in the show ring or other conduct detrimental to the breed or the show is not permitted.

Goats:

- A. Any artificial coloring (such as shoe polish, paint, etc.) or any appearance modifications (such as, but not limited to, placement of ice, ice water rags on the animals or any similar type of practices) are not permitted on goats at any time.

Sheep:

- A. Prior to the show, exhibitors are not permitted to use any artificial coloring (such as shoe polish, paint, etc.) or any appearance modifications (such as, but not limited to, placement of ice, ice water rags on the animals, or any similar type of practices).

Swine:

- A. Water only for grooming!
- B. Clipping Policy: Slick clipping and body shaving is prohibited except on ears and tails.
 - i. All 4-H and FFA market hogs will be checked prior to going on the scales at Fair weigh in by a third party individual for hair length.
 - ii. Hogs must have at least ½ in. of hair on the body. Hair length will be scored in three areas.
 - iii. Any and all hogs found to have less than ½ in. of hair, as scored by a third party individual, will be put on a call back list.
 - iv. Call back hogs will be rechecked at the conclusion of weigh-in for final hair score. Disqualified hogs are ineligible for show and sell. Exhibitors may select one of these options upon fairboard approval:
 - a. pay $20.00 fee to take disqualified hog home, Tuesday between 9:00 PM and 12:00 (midnight) or
 - b. Receive a current market price as determined by UPI and removed by the Fairboard.
 - v. During the 4-H and FFA market hog shows a third party individual will be available to recheck and score the hair length on any and all hogs deemed necessary. Any hogs found during the show with less than ½ in. hair will be disqualified from all shows and sales.
 - vi. Any clipping and snaring of hogs on the fairgrounds is strictly prohibited.

Junior Fair Livestock Special Rules

Ohio's Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules: The Clark County Fair will provide livestock exhibitors and adult advisors a copy of Chapter 901-19 (Ohio's Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules) upon request. A copy of Chapter 901-19 Ohio's Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules may also be reviewed by visiting the Ohio Department of Agriculture website at <http://www.state.oh.us/agr/>

Type of Shows and Sale:

- A. Partial Terminal Shows - The market beef, market lamb, market hog and market goat shows at the Clark County Fair will be partial terminal shows. Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion animals from these shows must be sold through the Junior Fair Livestock Auction and must be sent to harvest at the conclusion of the exhibition and Junior Fair Livestock Auction. Note: Market hogs are a partial Terminal Show but a Terminal Sale - See Declaring Market Hogs to go home rule in the Jr. Fair Swine Section.
- C. Non-Terminal Shows – The market rabbit, meat chicken, market turkey, meat ducks, dairy feeder, breeding dairy & dairy goat shows (milk) are non-terminal shows. Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion animals (or their products – milk) from these shows must be sold through the Junior Fair Livestock Sale, but do not have to go to harvest.
- D. Auction Limits – Members may sell a maximum of two animals/units and no more than one animal/unit in any species in the Jr. Fair Livestock Auctions. Animals not sold in the Jr. Fair Livestock Auction must be withdrawn in writing to the appropriate species committees by one hour after the conclusion of the market show.

Prohibited Practices:

- A. Tampering and/or misrepresentation as to breeding, age, ownership and any other irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception. Any premiums, trophies, awards or sale money won by such exhibitor will be withheld.
- B. All animals giving evidence of any unethical fitting treatment or unacceptable practices as outline in 901-19-13 will be barred from competition at the Clark County Fair. Unethical fitting means to alter or change the natural appearance, weight, musculature or conformation of an animal in an unnatural or artificial manner. Unethical fitting practices may include, but are not limited to the following: the removal of animal tissue or body part, to cut or tear the hide, to cover, dye or color the hair or hide, to add artificial tail-heads, switches, polls, hair, or heels, or to administer, feed, give or inject any substance or drug to an animal exhibited, excepted when medically necessary or when the drug has been approved for such use by the FDA and USDA.
- C. Slick clipping and/or body shaving are not permitted on market hogs except for ears and tails. Slick clipping or body shaving means having hair that is less than ½ inch in length on the body of the market hogs. See Clark County's Clipping Policy under Grooming Rules. Exhibitors may not show, sell or offer for sell any livestock that contain an unlawful substance or has been subjected to unacceptable practices.
- D. Exhibitors may not show, sell or offer for sale any livestock which contain a drug in an amount which exceed the tolerance level if established or safe level; or, a drug for which the withdrawal period has not elapsed unless administered in accordance with paragraphs (A), (B), or (C) of 901-19-04 Prohibited Practices of Ohio's Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules.
- F. Exhibitors may not exhibit an animal which as been tranquilized.
- G. In addition, exhibitors must comply with all rules outlined in 901-19-04 (Prohibited Practices) and 901-19-13 (Unacceptable Practices) of Ohio's Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules.
- H. Should fraud, deception, and/or violation be discovered after the animal or animals have been shown and prior to the sale, such animal(s) shall not be permitted to sell and all awards will be stripped from the exhibitor. The animals placing next in line at the show shall move up and receive any eligible awards. Should violation be discovered after the sale, all sale money shall be returned to the buyer and the animal or carcass shall be returned to the exhibitor.

Drug Testing: The Clark County Fair shall have the right to require testing or inspection of any and all animals entered in a junior livestock division competition before, during, or after the competition to carry out the following purposes: (a) to determine whether the animal has been unethically fitted in any manner, (b) to determine whether any false information or representation was made in a competition entry, and/or (c) to determine if a substance has been administered to the animal to change the conformation and/or temperament of the animal. Test samples will be collected from the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion market hogs, market lambs, market beef, dairy feeders and market goats at the conclusion of their selection.

FFA Code of Ethics

We will conduct ourselves at all times in order to be a credit to our organization, chapter, school, and community by:

- Dressing neatly and appropriately for the occasion.
- Showing respect for the rights of others and being courteous at all times.
- Being honest and not taking unfair advantage of others.
- Respecting the property of others.
- Refraining from loud, boisterous talk, swearing and other unbecoming conduct.
- Demonstrating sportsmanship in the show ring and being modest in winning and generous in defeat.
- Attending meetings promptly and respecting the opinion of others in discussion.
- Taking pride in our organization, activities, supervised experience programs, exhibits, and the occupation of agriculture.
- Not possessing or consuming alcohol, tobacco products or illegal drugs.
- Sharing with others experiences and knowledge gained by attending national and state meetings.
- Any violations of these ethics may result in disciplinary action by the FFA Advisor, including possible disqualification from the FFA activities.

JUNIOR FAIR – GIRL SCOUTS

Clark County Volunteer Fair Coordinator: Jennifer Anderson 937.215.7124
janderson137@woh.rr.com

FOR 2009, Ambassadors are grades 11 and 12. Shall they be with Seniors?

Clark County Fair 2008
Friday July 18 – Friday July 25, 2008

Eligibility:

Individual Entries: Registered Girl Scouts who are residents of Clark County and completed grades 1-12. Daisy Girl Scouts may not enter individual projects. Projects for Girl Scout programming must be from the current Girl Scout year (October 1 – September 30). Girls who have bridged during spring or summer may participate in the prior program level, but no one can participate in more than one (1) program level. Girls may also enter school projects from the grade they just completed in June and anything completed in pursuit of a hobby.

Troop/Group Entries: Minimum of three (3) girls within one (1) level; each girl is a resident of Clark County and has completed grades K-12. The troop/group may have participated on one project or submit their projects as a troop/group.

Girls may enter only one (1) project per entry class (category for group entry).

Entry Drop Off: Wednesday, July 9th 3:00 – 7:00 p.m.
Northminster Presbyterian Church 400 Villa Road Springfield

Entries will be accepted only during hours and at location designated above.

Each entry is to include an index card (no larger than 4X6) with this information included:

(Front) Age Level, Age, Class #, Class Description (Category for Troop Entries) and Description of How & Why Made and Materials used.

(Back) Girl's Name, Troop # (if applicable), Service Unit and Name and Phone Number of Person Picking Entry up on Pick Up Date.

Fair Entry Cards will be available to complete at Entry Drop Off site.

Entry Pick Up: Saturday July 26th 9:30 and 10:30 a.m.
Fair Display in Youth Building at Clark County Fairgrounds

Each girl will receive a participation ribbon.

Entries and ribbons remain in the display until designated time/date above.

Entries will be given to troop leaders or person written on the entry card.

Unclaimed entries will be discarded if not picked up during the designated time.

Monetary awards will be distributed on entry pick up date.

Judging Criteria/Awards:

Deductions are made for violations of any criteria. In general, entries are expected to reflect the age level in workmanship, creativity, originality and appearance. Evidence of knowledge gained and reflection of Girl Scout programming as written in the entry description is also taken into consideration. Judging occurs before set up in the Youth Building at the Clark County Fairgrounds.

- ✓ Entries made from kits or box mixes will not be considered for judging.
- ✓ Entries must not include school grades or teachers' comments; cover these.
- ✓ Girls' names on entries may ONLY be on the back or bottom of projects.
- ✓ Entries with incomplete entry information may not be judged.
- ✓ Entries cannot exceed 22"X28"X22" and, if to be hung, are to include hooks or hangers.
- ✓ Food Entries must include the recipe. Disposable plates are suggested as no entries are returned. Cover securely. Provide a picture if you would like entry to be seen at the fairgrounds.
- ✓ Clothing items for people or dolls must include a photograph that clearly shows fit.
- ✓ Individual, mounted photos are considered Photography class entries whereas multiple photos are considered Scrapbooking class entries.
- ✓ Performing Arts entries must include tape, CD or DVD of performance (max 10 minutes) for judging. Judges may not consider an entry if it cannot be viewed or heard clearly.
- ✓ Collections must be mounted/secured together with no loose items.

Ribbons may be presented to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place by class and level. A 1st place is not guaranteed in a class with less than three entries. One grand prize may be awarded for each category by age level. Monetary awards will be given as outlined (Daisy Girl Scouts are not eligible for monetary prizes in compliance with Girl Scout Program requirements):

Entries	Grand	First	Second	Third
Troop/Group	$5.00	$2.00	$1.50	$1.00
